

Marion Rowland

Catherine McAuley Research and Education Centre, Nelson Street, Dublin 7, Ireland
Telephone 353 1 716 4549 Mobile 353 87 2447436
marion.rowland@ucd.ie

Employment

2000- Present	Lecturer in Clinical Research Child Health School of Medicine, University College Dublin
1994 - 2000	Investigator, Department of Pediatrics, University College Dublin
1989 - 1994	Career Break
1983 - 1989	Locum General Practitioner Underserviced Areas in Canada
1981 - 1983	Medical Officer Cross River State Nigeria

Experience

I have almost 30 years experience as a clinical epidemiologist managing large scale prospective studies. My special areas of interest include The Epidemiology of Helicobacter pylori, Cystic Fibrosis Liver Disease and Functional Pain in Children

2010 – 2020	Member of the Health Research Board Appointed by the Minister of Health to the Health Research Board which is the agency responsible funding and promoting health research in Ireland
2008- Present	Board Member Cystic Fibrosis Registry of Ireland (CFRI)
2012- 2021	Secretary to the Board CFRI The purpose of CFRI is to identify and record information on the people with Cystic Fibrosis in Ireland, their treatment and outcomes. The CFRI provides independent data for service planning and development in Ireland. CFRI also contributes post marketing data for new modulator therapies for CF in Europe.

Research Funding

Principal Investigator Awards

2014-2017	Health Research Board The Natural history of Cystic Fibrosis Liver Disease- Refining the Phenotype	€325,000
2012 -2015	Health Research Board An Evaluation of Helicobacter pylori prevalence and strain diversity in a unique cohort of adolescents and their families in a developed country.	€323,000
2011-2014	Health Research Board The Natural History of Cystic Fibrosis Liver Disease	€274,216
2005-2008	Health Research Board Fellowship Award The Epidemiology of Cystic Fibrosis Associated Liver Disease	€400,000

Reserach Awards

2000	Royal Academy of Medicine of Ireland Research Awards Overall winner “Low rates of Helicobacter pylori Reinfection in Children. Gastroenterology 1999;117:336-41 Impact Factor 13.1)
-------------	---

Publications on request